

Jarod's Law and School Safety

- Extends to public middle and high schools a requirement that under existing law applies to public elementary schools under which specified employees must complete four hours of in-service training in the prevention of child abuse, violence, and substance abuse, and the promotion of positive youth development.
- Establishes a deadline of two years after the effective date of this amendment for the specified middle and high school employees to take the required four hours of in-service training.
- Directs districts and schools to incorporate training in school safety and violence prevention into their in-service training in the prevention of child abuse, violence, and substance abuse, and the promotion of positive youth development.
- Requires school districts, community schools, STEM schools, and chartered nonpublic schools to inform, prior to opening day each school year, each enrolled student and the student's parent of the parental notification procedures in the school's protocol for responding to threats and emergency events, which are established under existing law.
